

YTF AWARDEES FROM OUTSIDE THE FEBS AREA

Following the agreement between FEBS and IUBMB one trans-Youth Travel Fund Grant (trans-YTF) is available to a maximum of 1500 USD to facilitate the participation at the course of a selected participant from outside the FEBS area.

The chosen participant has to fulfill the eligibility criteria listed at our website (<http://www.febs.org/our-activities/advanced-courses/youth-travel-fund>)

Transcontinental YTF award will cover the full registration fee (370 €) including accommodation and meals. It will also contribute travel costs. Applicants need to provide evidence of their actual travel costs for trans-YTF.

In brief Applicants should:

- Be not older than 35 years;
- Be registered as PhD Students at an Institute of Higher Learning in a country where there is an IUBMB-adhering body but not a FEBS Constituent Society, or be Postdoctoral Scientists within five (5) years of having completed a PhD thesis, working in a country where there is an IUBMB-adhering body but not a FEBS Constituent Society;
- Be a member of an IUBMB Constituent Society or be in the process to becoming a member and provide a valid certificate membership;
- Not have received a grant from Youth Travel Funds to attend a FEBS Course/Workshops in the current year, nor a Bursary to attend the FEBS Congress in the current year, nor a grant to attend the FEBS Young Scientist's Forum in the current year;
- Awards will only be made to support travel from the applicant's current country of residence to the country hosting the FEBS event:
- Not come from the Organizer's laboratory;
- Be registered to the Course "Mitochondria in Life Death and Disease 2017";

Applicants should provide:

- a) Evidence that they are member of an IUBMB Constituent Society, or be in the process to becoming a member and provide a valid certificate membership.
- b) Recommendation letter from their supervisor;
- c) Proof of registration as PhD students (from University/Institute Secretariat or a PhD Student card), if they are students, or proof of date of PhD award, if they are a Postdoctoral Scientists;

Deadline for applications: July 1 2017

(Please note that this deadline precedes that for the general participants to the Course that has been fixed at July 31 2017)

Applications should be sent to: angela.evangelista@uniba.it with subject: YTF Application.

Those who will receive the Youth Travel Fund:

- will be notified by e-mail within the end of July 2017
- will receive their travel award (if any) directly by FEBS

- they should not pay their registration fee – this will be paid directly from FEBS to the course organizer.

All other regulations according to YTFs and trans-YTFs are included in the FEBS Advanced Courses guidelines (http://www.febs.org/document-uploads/2016_FEBS_AC_Guidelines.pdf).
